14.00 – 16.00

14.00 – 16.00	Workshop on Counselling The workshop aims to support reflection on motivations and pre-departure expectations and help students to identify effective strategies to deal with the new environment and situations they will come across during the period abroad. Experiencing new physical and social environments can be challenging but it can also open new and positive avenues to connect and adapt. Acquiring the ability to adequately monitor one's own wellbeing and emotional resonance and understanding when and what to do when facing hardship, will allow students to foster their psychological resilience and promote functional personal and professional growth.	Maria Grazia Strepparava Selenia Russo
